

The Catholic Athletic Association (CAA) Board of Directors request that the CAA Sportsmanship Pledge, printed below, be read at each match before play begins. ,

The “Pledge” should be read aloud by one player from each team, from Center Court, to the spectators. One team representative reads paragraph one; the other team representative reads paragraph two.

CAA SPORTSMANSHIP PLEDGE

1. As a player, I acknowledge that I am a role model. I will remember that school athletics and activities are learning experiences. I must show respect for all players, coaches, spectators, officials & supporting groups. I understand the spirit of fair play and that good sportsmanship is expected by our school and the Catholic Athletic Association.

2. I hereby accept my responsibility to be a role model of good sportsmanship, which comes with being a student involved in athletics and activities.

Updated September 2008